ABOUT REAPING THE HARVEST

For the past two Sundays an urgent need has been presented to you — the need for more harvesters in the Lord's Kingdom.
You were urged to pray for such harvesters.
Here is what you can do further to help meet this need.

Young people ... listen ...

Perhaps, you may be an answer to this prayer in your own person. It is the Lord, of course, Who reaps the harvest.
Yet, in His grace, He chooses to do this through the service of His children. For this purpose
He calls pastors and teachers.
These are life's highest callings.
Have you thought about choosing one of these professions for yourself? If so, be sure to talk to your pastor or teacher.
He is able to give you valuable help in making a decision.

All others ... listen ...

Sometimes consecrated and gifted young people are prevented from studying for the preaching or teaching ministry because they lack the funds. To help overcome this problem, the Synod has established a student scholarship fund — dependent upon the contributions of our Christians. Can you help in this respect?
If you are childless — if your children are grown — if the Lord has blessed you with a generous supply of this world's goods — here is a fine opportunity for you.

gram is being planned.

"Something new, if a night can be found that will not interfere with some other activity.
A sauerkraut supper is what I am talking about. Tickets are on sale in the basement."

Mrs. Raymond Dittmar

When I wrote the above I was confused about activities and dates and hurry to inform you that Friday, March 26 is definitely the date for the above supper. You may come any time from 5:00-8:00.

LWMS First meeting last Tuesday, March 9, about 20 in attendance. Future meetings will be the 4th Tuesday of every other month.
25 May is the next one. Any lady who is interested in spending herself in the effort to help save sinners is a welcome member. The topic of interest was a part of the story of our Northwestern Publishing House endeavoring to publish only suvh material that is Scripturally acceptable.

"Attention Y.P.S. There is going to be a splash party March 27 at the new John Glenn "Instead of March 23 as the calender says the next meeting is this Tuesday, March 16."
